

House Resolution No. 2949

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives feel it is altogether fitting and proper to pause from time to time to recognize individuals and organizations that have contributed to the welfare of this great state and its citizens; and

Whereas, Brad Gifford, a resident of Laquey, Missouri, and a college student, has been distinguished as an intern for the Honorable David Day, Missouri State Representative; and

Whereas, Brad Gifford joined the staff of Representative David Day during the Ninety-fourth General Assembly, Second Regular Session, as a part of the Missouri State Intern Program at the State Capitol in Jefferson City, a program designed to involve college students in the legislative process through active participation; and

Whereas, Brad Gifford has experienced the opportunity to observe first-hand the inner workings of state government and has gained valuable insight into the process by which laws are made; and

Whereas, Brad Gifford has successfully demonstrated abilities in the performance of such duties as conducting research, serving as legislative aide and session attendant, helping with constituent services, and assuming various other responsibilities to make the office of Representative David Day run smoothly; and

Whereas, Brad Gifford is known for his many contributions to his community, which include serving as “Grinch” for the Rotary Christmas on the Square, working for the YMCA “fabulous fakes” annual fund-raiser, and volunteering for the Pulaski County Sheltered Workshop; and

Whereas, Brad Gifford is the treasured son of Wayne and Linda Gifford and the devoted brother of Jessica Gifford, and he has the singular distinction of having graduated from high school with twenty-seven hours of college credit; and

Whereas, Brad Gifford has earned recognition as a valuable asset to Representative David Day and the entire Missouri Legislature through the application of the knowledge and skills acquired prior this experience and has attained a variety of new skills which will be of tremendous value in wherever life’s path may lead:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, proudly join the Honorable David Day in commending Brad Gifford for the many important contributions to our State Legislature during the session, and further extend our very best wishes for continued success in all future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Brad Gifford, as a measure of our gratitude.
